BOW CASES - BLACK VINYL EXTERIOR

Bobelock bow cases fit violin, viola, cello and bass bows comfortably. Bass bow cases are lined with wine or blue velour (green available in single violin size) and surrounded by a sturdy plywood shell. The covering on our bow cases is a tough pebble-grain vinyl that lasts for years. The violin/viola/cello bow cases easily fit all three sizes of bow and are designed to keep them from sliding around inside; very important for those delicate tips! Sturdy clasps keep the case closed even if dropped.

Interior Colors - Velour (single bow case is velvet): blue, wine, green. (Gray interior available single bow case only.)

FIBERGLASS CELLO CASE

Each Tonareli fiberglass case begins with its own mold. We use fiberglass sheets that are placed inside each mold and are then coated with thermal resin. The mold is sealed and hardens into the cello shaped case. The completed fiberglass product provides a strong and lightweight durable case with excellent thermal insulation. Once your case is closed and sealed you have the comfort of knowing your instrument is not only protected from inclement weather but also from sudden changes in temperatures.

It has wheels for ease of movement, three strategically placed handles to lift it properly, two bow holders, accessory pouch, back pack straps, and one removable pull strap. Weight 14 lbs.
